PRACTICAL GUIDELINES FOR CONDUCT WHEN INTERACTING WITH A CHILD OR YOUNG PERSON

To: The diocesan bishop, clergy, religious, employees and volunteers, working in and on behalf of its schools, parishes, Offices of Religious Education and Youth and Young Adult Ministry, and other diocesan parishes or school's programs or agencies engaged in extensive services with and counseling, educational and spiritual ministries to children and young persons.

- A. Children are dependent on adults and agents, particularly adults or agents in positions of trust and leadership. It is vitally important therefore, that reasonable prudence be exercised by all adults or agents that perform services on behalf of the Diocese, parishes or schools, which involves interaction with children.
- B. The following is a set of practical guidelines for conducting yourself which must be observed by all clergy, religious, lay employees and volunteers of the Diocese parishes or schools when dealing with children. These guidelines are intended to assist you employing good judgment when interacting with children. If you find it necessary to depart from these guidelines due to some extraordinary circumstance, you should be aware of your departure and must be able to justify your actions. If one-on-one involvement with a minor is unavoidable, you must use prudent judgment in your dealings with the minor.
- C. All bishops, clergy, religious, lay employees and volunteers of the Diocese parishes or schools will observe the following guidelines when engaging in ministry to or otherwise interacting with children:
 - (1) Children under eighteen (18) years of age who are not relatives of the clergy or religious may not stay overnight in any parish rectory throughout the Diocese, unless accompanied by a parent or guardian.
 - (2) You shall avoid any physical contact with a child that would be deemed inappropriate if carried out in the presence of the child's parent.
 - (3) Except in unavoidable circumstances that require otherwise, for example a preschooler who needs assistance in the restroom, you are not to be alone with a child in a residence, school, sleeping facility, locker room, restroom, dressing facility, or other closed area.
 - (4) You shall avoid any one-on-one counseling, tutoring, training, or other assistance or service with a child, it must be conducted in an open room setting without closed doors, except for a door with a window, and only if readily observable by others who may be in the room or in the hallway outside the room.

8/3/11; 2/20/20; 7/22/20; 7/23/23

- (5) You shall seek responsible adults to be present at events involving children, such as games and athletic activities.
- (6) At youth group trips and school field trips you shall have enough adult chaperones, preferably of the same sex as the participants, to provide adequate supervision based on the type of activity.
- (7) As an individual adult you shall never take an overnight trip alone with a child who is not a relative.
- (8) Alcohol, for sacramental purposes, in the form of wine, may be given to those under the age of 21 only in very limited quantity. Otherwise, you shall never provide alcohol to anyone under the age of 21.
- (9) Alcohol shall not be used by adult supervisors or chaperones if activities with or responsibilities for children are scheduled.
- (10) You shall always maintain a professional relationship in dealing with children.
- (11) If one-on-one counseling, tutoring or other training or care of a child requires frequent or regular appointments, parents shall be notified that these appointments are occurring and provide the schedule of appointments.
- (12) All of us have an obligation to take appropriate steps to protect children, particularly when they are in the care of the Church. If you observe another adult violating these guidelines or engaging in other conduct which causes you to have reason for concern for the well-being of a child, you shall confront that adult in a forthright manner and report your concerns to your supervisor, pastor or the Vicar for Clergy. If you have reason to believe that child abuse or neglect has occurred or is occurring, you shall follow the diocesan policy on reporting instances of child abuse to civil authorities and report the matter to your supervisor and otherwise follow the Child Sexual Abuse Policy and Procedures of the Diocese of La Crosse.

DIOCESAN PARISH AND SCHOOL COOPERATION WITH CIVIL AUTHORITIES

Whenever an agent of the Diocese of La Crosse parish and school has reasonable cause to suspect that a child is or has been a victim of child sexual abuse by diocesan agents, he/she shall comply with all laws requiring the reporting of such suspicions to the appropriate county department in the county in which the action allegedly occurred. Any investigations following such reports of suspected instances of child abuse will be accorded the complete and willing assistance of the appropriate diocesan parish or school personnel.

In addition, diocesan parish or school agents shall concurrently report such suspicions to the diocesan Bishop.

Wisconsin Law, Chapter 48 Wis. Stats., requires mandatory reporting of suspected child abuse by certain mandatory reporters. Chapter 48.981 (2) provides in part:

(2) PERSONS REQUIRED TO REPORT. (a) Any of the following persons who has reasonable cause to suspect that a child seen by the person in the course of professional duties has been abused or neglected or who has reason to believe that a child seen by the person in the course of professional duties has been threatened with abuse or neglect and that abuse or neglect of the child will occur shall, except as provided under sub. (2m), report as provided in sub. (3) (emphasis added): . . .

4. A nurse. . . .
 9. A medical or mental health professional not otherwise specified in this paragraph.
 10. A social worker. . . .
 12. A professional counselor. . . .
 14. A school teacher.
 15. A school administrator.
 16. A school counselor. . . .
 18. A child-care worker in a day care center, group home, as described in s.48.625 (1m), or residential care center for children and youth.
 19. A day care provider. . . .
 21. A member of the treatment staff employed by or working under contract with a county department under s. 46.23, 51.42, or 51.437 or a residential care center for children and youth. . . .
 24. A dietitian.
 25. A speech-language pathologist. . . .
- (bm) 1. Except as provided in sub. 3. and sub. (2m), a member of the clergy shall report as provided in sub. (3) if the member of the clergy has reasonable cause to suspect that a child seen by the member of the clergy in the course of his or her professional duties:
- a. Has been abused, as defined in s. 48.02 (1) (b) go (f); or
 - b. Has been threatened with abuse, as defined in s. 48.02 (1) (b) to (f), and abuse of the child will likely occur.
2. Except as provided in sub. 3. and sub. (2m), a member of the clergy shall report as provided in sub. (3) if the member of the clergy has reasonable cause, based on observations made or information that he or she receives, to suspect that a member of the clergy has done any of the following: (emphasis added)

- a. Abused a child, as defined in s. 48.02 (1) (b) to (f).
- b. Threatened a child with abuse, as defined in s 48.02 (1) (b) to (f), and abuse of the child will likely occur.

3. A member of the clergy is not required to report child abuse information under subd. 1. Or 2. That he or she receives solely through communications made to him or her privately or in a confessional setting if he or she is authorized to hear or is accustomed to hearing such communications and, under the disciplines, tenets, or traditions of his or her religion, has a duty or is expected to keep those communications secret. Those disciplines, tenets, or traditions need not be in writing.

(c) Any person not otherwise specified in par. (a), (b) or (bm), including an attorney, who has reason to suspect that a child has been abused or neglected or who has reason to believe that a child has been threatened with abuse or neglect and that abuse or neglect of the child will occur may report as provided in sub. (3) (emphasis added).

(d) Any person, including an attorney, who has reason to suspect that an unborn child has been abused or who has reason to believe that an unborn child is at substantial risk of abuse may report as provided in sub. (3) (emphasis added).

(e) No person making a report under this subsection may be discharged from employment for so doing.

SCREENING, EVALUATION AND MONITORING GUIDELINES
FOR DIOCESAN MINISTERS, EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS

Every reasonable effort shall be made to screen, evaluate and monitor diocesan ministers, employees and volunteers who have regular contact with children. The following are guidelines to be implemented throughout the Diocese of La Crosse.

I. Candidates for Ordination to the Priesthood or Permanent Diaconate.

Each candidate for ordination to the priesthood and/or the Permanent Diaconate shall receive psychological screening and evaluation, a social and religious background check, a medical evaluation and a comprehensive (fingerprint) criminal background check. In addition to other forms, all candidates shall be required to complete the Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Protect and Heal Questionnaire and Verification of Protect and Heal Training at the time of entry into the Seminary and update the form annually thereafter. A comprehensive criminal background check shall be conducted at the time the candidate is accepted for the 1.) Seminary training and immediately prior to ordination 2.) to the Diaconate and 3.) the priesthood.

The Safe Environment Director under the direction of the Vicar for Clergy is responsible for completing the above screening guidelines for candidates for the priesthood and candidates for the Permanent Diaconate.

II. Diocesan Priests and Deacons.

Each bishop, priest and deacon of the Diocese of La Crosse shall be subject to a basic criminal background check and shall be required to complete the Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Safe Environment Questionnaire and Verification of Protect and Heal Training. The Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Protect and Heal Questionnaire shall be updated annually by each Bishop, priest and deacon. The basic criminal background check shall be repeated for each bishop, priest or deacon no less than every five (5) years.

The Office of Safe Environment is responsible for completing the above screening guidelines for diocesan consecrated persons.

III. Non-Diocesan Priests or Deacons.

Each priest or deacon, seeking assignment or faculties in the Diocese of La Crosse shall be required to provide the Diocese of La Crosse with a letter of disclosure and an unconditional letter and recommendation from his current Bishop and/or religious superior specifically disclosing any credible history of child sexual abuse or allegations in addition to other mandated screening requirements and/or sexual misconduct. In addition, before assignment, each such priest or deacon shall be required to complete the Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Protect and Heal Questionnaire and Verification of Protect and Heal Training and be subject to a comprehensive (fingerprint) criminal background check. After assignment in the Diocese, every five(5)years, for each priest or deacon, a follow-up basic criminal background check shall be conducted. In addition, the Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Protect and Heal Questionnaire and Verification of Protect and Heal Training shall be updated annually.

The Vicar for Clergy is responsible for completing the above screening guidelines for non-diocesan priests or deacons.

IV. Non-Diocesan Religious Communities and Schools

This policy applies to non-diocesan religious communities who have regular contact with children including but not limited to Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration (FSPA), Sisters of St. Benedict (OSB), Sisters of St. Joseph of the Third Order of St. Francis (SSJ-TOSF), Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest (ICRSS), Order of Friars Minor, Capuchin (OFM, CAP), Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Franciscan Friars of the Immaculate (FFI) and Educational Academies.

All non-diocesan religious communities and schools who are permitted to provide services to children in the Diocese of La Crosse by the Diocesan Bishop shall, as a condition of providing such services initially and annually certify to the diocese that it has a safe environment program in place and implemented substantially similar to that of the Diocese of La Crosse.

V. Non-Ordained Diocesan Consecrated Persons

This policy applies to Brothers of St. Pius the Tenth (CSPX), the Institute of St. Joseph (ISJ), Consecrated Virgins and Hermits permitted by the Diocesan Bishop to reside or function in the Diocese of La Crosse. All diocesan consecrated persons shall be subject to a basic criminal background check and shall be required to complete the Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Protect and Heal Questionnaire and Verification of Protect and Heal Training. The Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Safe Environment Questionnaire shall be updated annually by each consecrated person. The basic criminal background check shall be repeated for each diocesan consecrated person no less than every five (5) years.

The Office of Safe Environment is responsible for completing the above screening guidelines for diocesan consecrated persons.

VI. Diocese of La Crosse Parish/School Employees

A. School Employees

In addition to other forms, before the start of service, all persons employed in the diocesan schools in the Diocese of La Crosse shall complete the Diocese of La Crosse Confidential Safe Environment Questionnaire and Verification of Protect and Heal Training. After hire, the Diocese of La Crosse Protect and Heal Questionnaire and Verification of Protect and Heal Training form shall be updated annually. Before start of service is finalized, all school employees shall be subject to a comprehensive (fingerprint) criminal background check. After hire, every five (5) years the employee shall be subject to a basic criminal background check.

For licensed and/or certified teaching personnel, before hire, a license check shall be obtained from the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction or other state licensing agency.

The Director of Schools or Principal at each location is responsible for completing the above screening guidelines for school employees.
